

Abstract Karen Yeressian

For elliptic integro-differential equations, which arise from Levy stochastic processes, we prove spatial decay estimates in the form of weighted norms. Our approach is general, allowing different decay rates. Applications of such estimates include bounding the domain for numerical calculations and proving the existence of solutions in unbounded domains with growing force term at infinity.